

THAILAND MODEL UNITED NATIONS CRITERIA FOR THE BEST CHAIR

Chair Reports

The Chair presents a quality and detailed research report for delegates in his/her committee, with thorough guidance and explanations on committee topics .

Communication

The Chair is in constant communication with delegates leading up to conference.

Punctuality

The Chair adheres to deadlines set by the secretariat for tasks which they must complete leading to and during the conference .

Judgemental

- The Chair exercises fair and reasonable control and has a thorough and detailed understanding of committee procedures .
- The Chair makes justified use of the warning system.
- The Chair is fair to all delegates and provides delegates with equal opportunities to speak

Adaptability

The Chair is adaptable to different situations.

Cooperative

The Chair is supportive of new delegates, tutoring delegates if necessary and ensuring that novice delegates develop confidence and are free from intimidation.

Decision Makers

The Chair exercises quick and sensible decision making.

Friendliness

The Chair is friendly and approachable and establishes a positive rapport with delegates.

Teamwork

The Chair demonstrates good teamwork with the co-chair and works as a team of equals